2. Presentation Evaluations (2. Emily Johnston)

Presenter	Weak points	Strong points	Comments
2. Emily Johnston (3min thesis)	2-(i), 2-(ii), 2-(vii)	2-(iv), 2-(vi)	• The speaking pace was too fast, even considering the 3-minute time limit. It would be better to reduce the content slightly and slow down. • Due to a lack of intonation and pausing, it was difficult to identify the key points of the presentation. • Good eye contact was maintained across the audience, rather than staring at a single point.

3. Presentation Evaluations (3. Frob Duguid)

Presenter	Weak points	Strong points	Comments
3. Frob Duguid (3min thesis)	2-(v), 2-(vi)	2-(iii), 2-(iv), 2-(i)	• Ending the Three Minute Thesis at 2:20 (video 0:20–2:45) leaves about 40 seconds unused, which shows very poor time management. • There was a bit too much body language, which became a distraction and made it difficult to focus on the actual content. • The speaking pace felt just right. • Good eye contact was maintained across the entire room, rather than staring at a single point.
